Sir John Hawkins

Portrait from PLYMOUTH ARMADA HEROES THE HAWKINS FAMILY

PIECES OF THE PUZZLE

There are almost as many spellings and explanations for the origin of the name Hawkins as there are families who claim that they descend from Sir John Hawkins or his brother William. One story is that the original Hawkins was a man who kept hawks. A professional genealogist from Seattle, whose opinion is highly respected, says that "The name Hawkins is a diminutive of Henry. Had the original Henry lived in Wales, he would have been called Hugh and his son Hughes."

PLYMOUTH ARMADA HEROES author, Mary W.S. Hawkins, claims that the name is derived from Hawkins, a village in the Hundred of Folkstone in England. Osbert de Hawking was an ancestor of Andrew Hawkins who lived near Fabersham, Kent, at Nash Court. When Joan de Nash married Andrew Hawkins, he acquired her inheritance, Nash Court, and these are the people from whom the Hawkins of Devon are descended.

If you are a descendant of a Hawkins ancestor perhaps you are related to Sir John Hawkins for, although he had only one son Richard, he had six grandchildren and many great grandchildren. Sir Richard's son John married Hester Richards and they had ten children. Their son John married Mary Dewe and some of their fourteen children came to Virginia.

There were other families in England with the name Hawkins too and perhaps readers who know more about Sir John than our highschool history teachers told us, may discover and be happy that they are not descendants of his great, great grandchildren who were early Virginia planters.

Sir John wasn't called "pirate" in the days of Queen Elizabeth's reign in England because he was her friend and he certainly did share with her the treasures of gold, silver and jewels that he took from Spanish ships who were bringing it from Mexico; where they had taken it from the natives. That way, the queen was able to live very extravagantly and still not tax her subjects excessively. Hence, they loved their "Good Queen Bess" and she could do no wrong. Sir John could, for he was a slave trader. The Crown did frown upon that activity, but not too much. When Her Majesty's inspectors came to look over the Hawkins ships before they sailed from Plymouth, they noticed the large quantities of beans that were stored in the holds. Upon inquiring, however, they were told that it made good ballast and the matter was closed. Beans did indeed make good ballast but the real purpose for having them was to provide food for the negroes who were to be taken in Africa. Not all the slaves were acquired by sailing up the rivers and simply going into the villages and taking as many residents as possible. Some were sold to Sir John and his crew by tribal chiefs who were solving their problem of overcrowded conditions in their jails or wherever they kept their prisoners who had been captured in battle.

Although he will probably never be canonized, Sir John was not all bad. There are some nice things to be said about him too. He often showed mercy and kindness to his men and he brought the Irish potato to Europe and introduced it in England. It was obtained in Antiqua and didn't originate in Ireland at all.

We are not attempting to enumerate his sins or good deeds but to discover his ancestors and ours. Let's begin in Plymouth, England.

The first John Hawkins that we find in the Plymouth, England area was John Hawkins of Travistock. He married Joan Amados who was the daughter of William Amados of Launceston. John and Joan had a son William who was born at Plymouth. William, besides being an officer in King Henry VIII's Navy, owned his own 200 ton boat which was named the Paul Of Plymouth and he owned a large amount of property there. He was a Receiver in Plymouth in 1527-28 and defended the Argosy against the French. He was made Mayor of Plymouth in 1532-33 and again in 1538-39. He was also elected a Burgess in the English Parliament. William married Joan Trelawny, daughter of Roger Trelawny of Brightorre. They had two sons, William and John.

William Hawkins married twice. By his first wife---, he had William, Judith, Clare and Grace. His second wife was Joan Tothill who was the daughter of William Tothill and they were the parents of children: Richard, Francis, b. 1582, Nicholas b. 1584, William b. 1587, Frances, Mary and Elizabeth. He died on October 7, 1589. His burial was at Deptford, Kent.

William, son of William became a Sea Captain like his father and was the Mayor of Plymouth in 1567-8. He owned a fleet of ships.

John, the other son of Joan Trelawny and William Hawkins was born in Plymouth, and like his father and brother, espoused the life of the sea. He became Sir John Hawkins for his distinguished service to Her Majesty and named one of his ships "Jesus".

Sir John married Katherine Gonson whose father, Benjamin was a second generation Treasurer of the British Navy. After his father in law's death, Sir John became Treasurer of the Navy and remained in that position until his death at sea in 1595.

Sir John and Katherine had one son Richard. After her death in 1591, he married Margaret Vaughan and they had no children.

Richard, like his ancestors, was a sailor and was also knighted. He married Judith----- and they had a daughter in 1592. Sir Richard was captured and imprisoned by the Spaniards for several years. There is a legend that Judith, thinking that her husband was dead, decided to marry again. She was quite surprised on her wedding day, when Sir Richard returned --shortly before the ceremony!

There were five more children born to them after his return: John, b. ca 1600, Richard, Margaret, Joan and Mary.

In 1636, John married Hester Richards and their first son, John died at the age of three. Judith was b. in 1640, Richard, b in 1641 and another son named John was b. Sept. 21, 1643, William was b. in 1644, followed by Robert, who died in infancy, Mary, Thomas and Nicholas. John married Mary Dewe and they had 14 children and some of them settled in the New World in Virginia.

The above information was from PLYMOUTH ARMADA HEROES: THE HAWKINS FAMILY by Mary Wise Hawkins. This is an old book written and published in England in the nineteenth century. It has been copied on film and is available at the LDS Genealogical Library in Salt Lake City.

From Mayes and Related Families p. 154 by Edward Mayes, comes the following: John Hawkins, b. 1643 m. Mary Dewe, daughter of Edward, son of Richard and Elizabeth Tesdale descendant of Thomas Tesdale, one of the founders of Pembroke College, Oxford. They had 14 children born 1671-1698. 2nd child: William Hawkins was a great criminal lawyer, author of "Treatise of the Pleas of the Crown."

John Hawkins, younger son of John and Mary Dewe, b. ca 1680, immigrated to Virginia ca 1705, settled at St. Anne's Parish, Essex Co.

Records show that there were two or three John Hawkins families living in the old Essex CO. One was the son of Thomas, an ancient settler of the Colony. That John remained there as did his son William who married Margaret -----.

Another John Hawkins acquired land in St. George Parish in Spotsylvania CO., in King William CO., and in Caroline CO. He married Mary Long, dau. of John Long, another settler of early Virginia. John was thought to be a close relative, possibly a brother of Philomon Hawkins who came to Virginia with his wife Eleanor Ann Howard. They all settled near Todd's Bridge which was at that time in King and Queen County over the Mataponi River. (County boundaries changed often in early Virginia as the population increased.) A book written by descendants of Philomon Hawkins claims that he is a direct descendant of Sir John Hawkins. Records and deeds in the above counties show the dates and locations of land transactions for John Hawkins and Philomon.

John and Mary Long had children: Joseph, Philomon, William, Mary, Phebe and Elizabeth. There was possibly a son named Nicholas. He mentions some of them in land transactions but his will was destroyed. His death occurred ca 1740.

Joseph Hawkins, the oldest son of John and Mary Long was b. ca 1706. His wife was Jane Nicholas and they owned various pieces of property in Spotsylvania CO. and are described in that county's deed books. He lived in Hanover CO. but had purchased land inherited from his sister Mary Craig. The property was originally purchased from Harry Beverly on the NE side of the Pamunkey River on both sides of Terry's Run which was then called the Jigg-ing River. In 1769, he left land to wife Jane and son Joseph Jr. It was a "tract of land left by his father."

Joseph Hawkins had a son John who may be the John Hawkins of Hanover CO., who married Mary Langford. One genealogist who has studied the Virginia Hawkins families for many years believes that this is true. She has assembled many facts which lead to that conclusion. A descendant, Dr. J. Russell Hawkins of Kentucky believed that John of Hanover CO came from England.

Joseph Hawkins dated his will Mar. 30, 1769 and was witnessed by Philomon, his son, and Charles Cosby and W. Robinson. The will pg. 525 Will Book, Spotsylvania CO., VA reads " EX. wife Jane and sons John and Joseph. Leg. wife Jane, the tract of land left me by my father with that part of the land that I purchased from Bernard Moore, Gentleman: son Joseph land adjoining James Jones, Edward Coleman and others: "...my two daughters Lucy and Sarah Hawkins."

Joseph Hawkins deceased, held a legal title of land in Orange CO. in 1770. William Hudson, Blacksmith, had the equitable. Larkin Chew mentioned the property in his will in Spotsylvania CO.

Philomon, son of John and Mary Long Hawkins was born ca 1715. Like two of his sisters, he married children of Samuel Smith. His first wife was Mary Smith but when he died in Spotsylvania CO on May 6, 1779, his will names wife Ann. His sons named in the will were John, Joseph and Philomon. His daughters were Frances, (Franky) Thomas and Lucy Craig. His son Benjamin preceded him in death.

John, son of Philomon, married l. Margaret Jamison and had one son Jameson (Jemerson) in Culpeper, CO., VA.

John married his second wife Sarah Johnston, daughter of Peter Johnston of Culpeper CO. Their children were: Philomon, Peggy Cave, Sally Smith, Thomas, Mary C., John Jr., Fanny Thomas, William Coty and Lucinda who married her cousin Arculous Hawkins.

The family moved to Scott CO., KY and lived in Georgetown where John became a prominent citizen. John and Sarah helped organize the first Baptist Church ca 1811. There were two John Hawkins families in Georgetown at that time. See "Bits" for their activities. ... The above information is from THE HISTORY OF SCOTT COUNTY KENTUCKY.

John died in 1804 and was buried at the cemetery at Georgetown which is located one mile from the center of town on the Lexington Pike.

Jameson, son of Elijah, (grandson of Jameson) was born in Scott CO., KY on January 11, 1819. He attended school at Georgetown College and married Sarah Ann Smith of KY. The couple had 12 children: Elijah, Thetis G. Hatch, M.C., Anna W. Hewett, William E., Jameson, Jennie, Asa Smith, John Rhodes, Sallie, Mary, George and Laura. In 1839, the family moved to Hanibal, MO. where he started a general store, a sawmill and a ferry system. He also had a dairy business. For a time they lived in California where he had a business from 1841 to 1851. They returned to Hanibal where he remained until his death. ... This information is from an article written by a descendant. It came from Mrs. Dorothy Wulfeck.

Benjamin Hawkins, the son of John Hawkins Sr. is described in HISTORIC FAMILIES OF KENTUCKY by Green on pg. 78. " August 24, 1819 Dr. McDowell married his kinswoman Maria Hawkins Harvey. She was the daughter of Matthew Harvey and Magdalena Hawkins Harvey. She was the daughter of Benjamin Hawkins, a gay, handsome, and graceful cavalier, who had run away with and married Martha Burden. Her parents were killed by Indians in 1742."

REGLEY'S VIRGINIA FRONTIER, in the chapter on JAMES RIVER COMMUNITIES IN BOTETORT, CO., 1770-1783, relates some of the life story of Martha's parents as well as the years that she spent with her husband Benjamin. There was no mention of the Indians. Martha's mother was a widow who married a second husband, John Bower or Bowyer, a school teacher.

Benjamin, who married Martha in 1764, died young, leaving Martha with six children. In May 1779, Martha, who had inherited large amounts of land from her father, deeded to her children: "To son John, one half of the plantation whereon I now live, with negroes and appurtenances; To son James, one third of Hall's Bottom and negro Sam; To son Burden, one third of Hall's Bottom and negro Moses; To daughters, Magdalene and Sally, two tracts, one called Crabtree Spring and the other adjoining, containing jointly about 700 acres." Martha married Robert Harvey and her daughter Magdalene married his brother, Matthew.

Phebe, daughter of John Hawkins and Mary Long was involved in a court action as follows:

"Phebe Hawkins, an infant, by Mary Hawkins her next friend, complains July 1735, of Stephen Noblit (otherwise called Stephen Smith,) Charles Noblit alias Smith, brother of the defendant, being possessed of divers goods and chattels to the value of 200£ intended to marry Phebe. On the last day of March, 1733-4 the defendant scandalously and maliciously did say 'Phebe Hawkins is a whore and I have lay'n with her'. She has thus fallen in to great infamy and Charles has refused to marry her. She asks damages of 250 £ current money. ... Dismissed " The word friend was sometimes used in relation to a brother or sister. Infant was not necessarily a very young child. It could mean a person who was under the age of 21.

Phebe married Charles Smith later when he was using the name Smith instead of Noblit. His will in Louisa, CO., VA Bk 2, pg. 44: "Left to John Hawkins of Hanover CO., in trust for children: Elizabeth Brown, Lucy Smith, Susannah Wild, William Smith, Ann Smith, Sarah Smith. EX. John Lewis, Patrick Henry, John Hawkins, son William Smith. Dated 30 Aug. 1768. Witnesses: Cosby Duke, John Cosby, Thomas Teel. Proved. Dec. 12, 1768."

Mary Hawkins, b. 1716, d. 1804 was the daughter of John Hawkins and Mary Long. She married Tolliver (Taliaferro - Tolver) Craig. They lived at Spotsylvania CO. in St. George Parish. They had eleven children: John, Lewis, Tolliver Jr. Elijah, Jane, Jeremiah who married his cousin Lucy, dau. of Philomon, Sarah, Smith, Elizabeth, Joseph, Salley and Joyce. Tolliver Jr. and Elijah were Baptist Ministers.

Around the time of the American Revolution, Baptists were persecuted in that part of Virginia, by both the Church of England and the Presbyterians. A group of Baptists, including Tolliver Craig, Jr. and his brother Elijah, both preachers, formed the Traveling Church and moved to Kentucky. They stopped in Kentucky at Bryant's Station and were there during an Indian attack. Mary and Tolliver Craig were the oldest defenders of the Station.

Mary lived to the age of 88 years and is buried in Georgetown, Scott CO., KY. in the graveyard at the Great Crossing Church. On her tombstone is written "THE MOTHER OF MANY FAITHFUL."

William Hawkins, son of John Hawkins and Mary Long leaves records in both Orange and Culpeper Counties and from Crozier's SPOTSYLVANIA COUNTY RECORDS 1721 -1800. : "Nov. 1, 1742. William Hawkins of St. Thomas Parish, Orange CO., Planter, and Mary, his wife, to Abraham Estes of St. Stephen's Parish, King and Queen CO., 24 E cur. 110 ac., part of land sold to Edward Pigg, Larkin Chew, George Smith, Richard X Bradley. Nov. 2, 1742. "

Records in Culpeper CO., show William's wife as Mary until 1760. Elizabeth is the name connected with him after that date.

William Hawkins of St. Thomas Parish, Orange CO., made a will in Jan. 1776. A condensed version taken from the original is:

"Unto my son William Hawkins twenty shillings sterling if he should be living at the time of my decease and if dead to descend to my son John Hawkins.

Unto my son John Hawkins two cows and calves whenever he leaves of over-seeing and goes to house keeping.

To my beloved wife Elizabeth Hawkins all the residue of my estate during her natural life and after her decease to be divided as follows:

Unto my son Benjamin Hawkins one shilling current money. Unto my son John Hawkins all the rest of my estate. My beloved wife Elizabeth Hawkins executrix and my son John Hawkins executor. "

William (X) Hawkins

Witnesses were Uriel Mallory, Wm. Strother, and Thomas Brown.

John Hawkins did receive the land from his father and after he married Ann Amburge, he sold it and moved to North Carolina.

Ephraim Rucker sold the land that he purchased from John and Ann Hawkins in 1786. The property was near Gordonsville on the Orange-Albemarle line and the new owner was Colby Cowherd who sold it to a man named Chapman. This is supposed to be land that John got from Madison. There is a Hawkins Mill listed down there.

John and Ann moved to Rowan County, N.C. The above information is from Mrs. Joanna Neilson, a descendant of William Hawkins and a genealogist who has done much research on the Hawkins families.

Benjamin Hawkins, son of William and Mary lived in Culpeper CO., VA with his wife, Sarah Willis, dau. of John Willis of King George CO. and his wife Sarah..... They had sons Moses, William, Benjamin and James and several daughters. Benjamin died in Culpeper CO. in 1782.

Captain Moses Hawkins, 14th Virginia Regiment, was the son of Benjamin and Sarah. He was b. ca 1750 in Culpeper, CO. and married Susannah Strother. From a DAR application the following information:

Captain Moses Hawkins married Susannah Strother on Mar. 3, 1770 and they had four children. She was the daughter of William Strother b. 1720 in Orange CO., and Sarah Bailey. Moses was killed in the battle at Germantown on Oct. 4, 1777.

From Dorothy Wulfeck's THE HAWKINS FAMILIES OF VIRGINIA, KENTUCKY AND North Carolina the following:

1. Susannah married twice: firstly, March 1, 1770, Captain Moses Hawkins and secondly, June 28, 1781, Thomas Coleman who had been a corporal in the Company of her first husband.

Issue by first marriage.

1. Sarah Bailey Hawkins who married James Thornton. 2. William Strother Hawkins, who was born June 1, 1772, and died Oct. 6, 1858. He married Oct. 14, 1802, Katherine Keith, dau. of Capt. Isham Keith by his wife, Charlotte Randolph, dau. of Thomas Randolph of "Tuckahoo," who married Judith Fleming and was himself a son of William Randolph of "Turkey Island", who married Mary Isham.

3. Moses Hawkins Jr. who died Oct. 10, 1817; he married, July 25, 1800 Sarah Castleman. Issue: a. Lewis Castleman Hawkins who was b. Feb. 20, 1802 and died May 21, 1867. He married April 6, 1824, Mary Beard (who was b. Mar. 10, 1808.) He died Jan. 15, 1884. b. Susan Strother Hawkins b. Oct. 6, 1803 and married twice: firstly, Nov. 26, 1829, Middleton Davis: and secondly, Allen Phillips. c. Benjamin Franklin Hawkins who was b. Feb 24, 1805 and died unmarried, Feb. 15, 1852. d. James Henry Hawkins who was born Mar. 18, 1805/7. e. David Castleman Hawkins who was b. Dec. 3, 1813, and died Jan. 22, 1876. He married twice: firstly, March 13, 1834, Caroline Nance: and secondly, Nov. 14, 1855, Elizabeth M. Johnson. f. Octavia Pannill Jemima Castleman Hawkins, who was b. Feb. 12, 1815 and married Oct. 7, 1833, Reuben McCoy. g. Sarah M. Hawkins who was b. Jan. 23, 1817, and died April 4, 1769. She married, Mar. 13, 1793, William George (brother of Joseph George who married her half sister, Nancy Coleman.)

HAWKINS FAMILY by Annie Hawkins Miles names Sarah Bailey and James Thornton's children: James Thornton, Mark, Susan, Elizabeth, William Willis Thornton, Sallie, Lucy Ann, Dick, Emma, Sophie, Strother Thornton, More Thornton. Lucy m. William George and had 10 children.

Benjamin Hawkins and Sarah Willis had a son William b. ca 1750 who mar. Elizabeth Bourne, dau. of Andrew Bourne of Culpeper CO. and his wife Jane Morton. Several sources of information say that William and Elizabeth were married in Fauquier CO., VA and moved to Harrison CO., VA. This may not be true. There was another William Hawkins who came from England and lived in these places. He was a butcher and his wife was Elizabeth. His children's names will be given later with his story.

The following information is from THE HAWKINS FAMILIES OF VIRGINIA, KENTUCKY AND NORTH CAROLINA by Mrs. Dorothy Ford Wulfeck pg. 32 and pg.

57. "Deed Book B. pg. 328. John, Benjamin, and James Hawkins, Polly Barnett, Willis Hawkins and Sally Hawkins, chdn. of Eliz. Hawkins dau. of Andrew Bourne of Culpeper CO., VA to our Bro., Moses Hawkins P of A to recover slaves left us by our grandfather, Andr. Bourne: Feb. 1808 s and ack. by John Barnett and Willis and Sally Hawkins only and rec. same."

Capt. James Hawkins, son of Sarah Willis and Benjamin Hawkins married Jane Bourne, the sister of Elizabeth Bourne Hawkins. He received a land grant for his services in the American Revolution and they moved to Kentucky.

Benjamin Hawkins Jr. son of Benjamin Hawkins and Sarah Willis married Ann Bourne, another dau. of Andrew and Jane. One source of information says that they moved to Kentucky to Fayette County and had children: Andrew, Francis, Benjamin, Abraham and Sarah, who married Reuben Boston. There may be other daughters. Some of these children lived in Anderson CO., KY on the Kentucky River.

Another source says that Benjamin lived in Culpeper CO. and died there in 1793. His father died in 1782. This Benjamin's children were Matthew, Elisha, Benjamin and Arculous and perhaps others. His will mentions wife Juda or Judith. One member of this family who was named Benjamin died in KY in 1807.

Matthew, son of Benjamin of Culpeper CO., VA married Elizabeth Maxwell, dau. of James Maxwell. Their children were: Betty, Job, James, Rebecca, who married Hawkins Popham, Phebe married Thomas Popham, Susanna married --- Lightfoot, John, and Sarah who married Armistead Kelly on Sept. 25, 1794. Matthew served in the Culpeper CO. Continental Army in 1781. His will was written on May 27, 1820 in Culpeper CO., and was probated June 19, 1820.

Betty, his dau. married Humphrey Popham, son of Job and Ann Popham, on Nov. 2, 1788 in Culpeper CO. They moved to Nelson County, KY and were listed on the 1800 and 1810 census there. In 1820, they were in Washington CO. At this time there were two sons and two daughters living with them. Lucy, dau. of Betty and Humphrey Popham married George Morrison on Apr. 15, 1813 in Nelson CO. Elizabeth married William B. Ferguson on April 18, 1812. Mary the daughter that was called "Polly" was b. July 9, 1792 and married Reuben Morgan on Sept. 24, 1811 in Nelson CO. Jacob, son of Betty and Humphrey Popham lived in Washington, CO., KY in 1820. He had two daughters. William Nall Popham, son of Betty and Humphrey was b. ca 1789, married Mary (Polly) Davis on June 13, 1816 in Nelson CO., KY. She was the dau. of Travers Davis and Frances (Fanny) Melton Davis. William Nall died in Scott CO., Arkansas.

The information on the Pophams was contributed by Mr. Rodger Crocker, a Baptist Minister and also a History and English teacher in Llano, Texas. His mother was a Popham, a direct descendant of William Nall Popham.

Archelous, son of Benjamin, was having financial difficulties in 1814, in Culpeper CO. On December 25, 1814, he owed $100. He agreed to give certain property to James Green, Jr. for the payment of his indenture. The property was adjacent to M. ? Scott, John Popham and others. "Green can sell the property Dec. 25, if Hawkins doesn't Pay." John Strother was the witness. from Culpeper CO Court Records at the LDS Genealogy Library in Salt Lake City, Utah.

William Hawkins, son of William and Mary was married to Elizabeth Wall and lived in St. Thomas Parish, Orange, CO., VA. In 1786, he purchased land on Flat Run joining Craig's Lease. Flat Run was called Wildcat Run in earlier years and most of it was owned by Gov. Spottswood who deeded some of it to his overseer as payment for looking after his affairs while he was in England. The rest was leased. The Hawkins property was obtained from an heir of Spottswood.

William's name appears as a witness on various documents and he was an appraiser who worked in several counties in Virginia.

His signature is on several petitions in Orange CO. which are printed in a very interesting book called PATRIOTS OF THE UPCOUNTRY by William H.B. Thomas. One of the petitions was a plea to divide the county into separate districts because of the inconvenience travel to the Courthouse caused.

Another petition, signed by William Hawkins, was instrumental in obtaining separation of Church and State after the American Revolution.

When the War of Independence was over, the majority of the Americans became disillusioned with the Church of England for obvious reasons. A law was passed in Virginia to give the Church Property to the Protestant Episcopal Church. Around the same time, tent revivals were becoming appealing to residents of the area who were dissatisfied with the discrimination in the Church of England. Only the wealthiest members were invited to become officers in the Church and even certain pews were assigned to the more influential families. In other colonies, there was a status connection with the location of graves in the Churchyards. In Virginia this was not of too much concern as most of the families had their own cemeteries on their plantations. Usually strangers and residents who lived near the Church were buried in the Churchyards. Before the war, membership in the Church was mandatory with fines and punishments given to those who failed to attend. There were residents who preferred to be Baptists or Presbyterians or Quakers and they resented strongly, their tax money being given to the Episcopalians. William Hawkins' signature appears on several petitions requesting that this law be repealed.

William Hawkins died in 1799 and left a will written in 1789 in which he mentions his widow, Elizabeth, daughter, Mary Mankspile, widow of John Watson. His sons were Reuben, Archelous, John, Elisha and William. The property on Flat Run was left to sons Reuben and Elisha.

Reuben served in the American Revolution as an Ensign, Lieutenant and Captain with Capt. Francis Taylor in the Regiment of Colonel Spottswood. At one time, he was a recruiting officer in Orange County and another time was stationed at Augusta County in a camp where British prisoners were held. While in the Army, he married Rebecca Edwards whose sister Elizabeth had married Reuben's brother Elisha. They were daughters of Uriah Edwards and Mildred Head. The wedding took place in August, 1778 with Reuben in uniform, at the St. John's Episcopal Church by Parson James Marye. The Church was near Uriah Edwards' home but he refused to attend the ceremony and stayed home and made peach brandy. It is not known if he objected to Reuben or the Church but he did mention Reuben in his will and Rebecca lived at his home while her husband was away. She was sixteen when she married Reuben.

After the war, Reuben was active in political affairs in Orange CO. and his signature is often seen on petitions. In THE EDWARDS FAMILY by Eldon Edwards Sr. "Reuben and Rebecca seemed to have been living in Kentucky prior to 1800. It is reported that they lived in the region called Dry Run. Their names are to be found in the Elkhorn Records as early as 1800". He died in Orange CO., VA in 1812 and Rebecca and her younger children returned to Kentucky.

Reuben and Rebecca had 12 children: Elizabeth, William Benton b. 1781 in Orange CO., Elisha, Roddy, Archulus, Reuben Jr., Lucy, Moses, Uriah, Milly, Benjamin S. and Sally.

Reuben didn't leave a will but his material possessions were listed in Orange CO., VA. The inventory and copies of Rebecca's applications for a pension in her old age are on film in the LDS Genealogy Library in Salt Lake City. She was finally granted her pension even though her mind was forgetful. Relatives and friends provided the necessary information on her applications.

It is not known where Rebecca and Reuben are buried. In 1820, she was living with her youngest son, Benjamin in Franklin CO., KY. There is an old grave yard near his home but the stones are all gone.

Mr. Hugh Hawkins, a descendant of Reuben's son Roddy contributed the following information on Elizabeth: Elizabeth Hawkins was b. ca 1786 in Orange CO., VA. Her date of death is unknown, her place of burial is unknown. She married her kinsman, Moses Hawkins on May 8, 1814 in Franklin CO., KY. He was b. ca 1789 probably in Virginia. He died prior to July 1, 1872 in Franklin CO., KY. Moses was the son of William Hawkins and his second wife, Ann Bohannon Smith. Elizabeth and Moses had six children: Burn M. Hawkins b. ca 1820, Jephtha D. Hawkins b. ca 1821, Agnes Ann Hawkins, b. May 26, 1823, Sophronia E. (Susanna), Sarah Rebecca b. ca 1829 and Elizabeth M. b. ca 1833.

Jephtha D. Hawkins, son of Elizabeth Hawkins and Moses Hawkins married Catherine Watts in Anderson CO., KY on October 26, 1845. They had children: Sarah Hawkins b. ca 1846, Robert, b. ca 1849, John b. ca 1852, Charles A. b. ca 1855, Elizabeth b. ca 1858, Mary (Molly) Frances b. ca 1860 and Morton W. b. ca 1864. They lived in Franklin CO., KY.

Agnes Ann, dau. of Elizabeth and Moses Hawkins married Roddy Hutson Hawkins on Feb. -, 1845 in Franklin CO., KY. He was the son of Roddy Hawkins and Elizabeth Jones. They had four children.

Sarah Rebecca, dau. of Elizabeth and Moses Hawkins married Jess Brown, Jr., in Franklin County, KY on Mar. 21, 1853.

William Benton Hawkins, the son of Reuben and Rebecca Hawkins was born on Feb. 26, 1781 in Orange CO., VA. He was known in Kentucky where he lived as "Black Head Billy." On Jan. 15, 1802, in Franklin CO, he married Mary (Polly) Crockett. Mary was b. Feb. 9, 1781 and d. Mar. 31, 1851. She was the dau. of Col. Anthony Crockett and Mary Robertson. William and Mary had children: Elizabeth Stephenson, b. Dec. 29, 1802, Mary Robertson b. Aug. 30, 1804, Rebecca Edwards, b. Sept. 15, 1806, Anthony Crockett, b. Dec. 15, 1808, Martha Norman, b. Feb. 18, 1811. Emily Head was b. May 31, 1817, William Grandville Crockett, b. April 11, 1819, Sarah Ann, b. Oct. 11, 1821, and Samuel Fountain b. April 6, 1826.

William Benton Hawkins died on May 29, 1845. He is buried at the Evergreen Church Cemetery at Farmdale, which is in Franklin CO., KY. He had his will carved in stone on his gravemarker. Some of his relatives took the matter to court and it was accepted. The stone reads:

I, William B. Hawkins being of sane mind and disposing memory do make this instrument my last will and testament in manner and form following this is to say: I will and bequeath to my wife Mary Hawkins the farm on which I now reside with all the appertances thereto belonging household and kitchen furniture all the negroes that I own all my hogs, cattle and sheep, farming utensils and four horses which she may choose for and during the time of her natural life and after her decease I give that farm to my son, S.F. Hawkins to be divided equally amongst all my children herein after mentioned, (except S.F. Hawkins), E.O Hawkins, W.G. Sally Hawkins, dau. of Rebecca Edwards and Reuben Hawkins was born after 1800. She died between July 27, 1840 and Mar. 5, 1841 in Mercer CO. KY.

Benjamin S. Hawkins, son of Reuben Hawkins and Rebecca Edwards was b. in 1800 in Orange, CO., VA. He lived with his mother in Franklin CO. in 1820 and was married to Elizabeth Church on Feb. 19, 1822, in Franklin CO. Her parents were Thomas Church and Mary White. They lived in a log house, built in 1792 which is still standing. It is covered with wooden siding and had two huge fireplaces. One of the stone fireplaces was removed and reassembled in the Museum belonging to Mr. Richard Luscher, the present owner of the property. The house is located in Thorn Hill, Frankfort, Franklin, CO.

Benjamin and Elizabeth had the following children: Rebecca, who married ----Hirsch. Laura, who married M. Forbes, Eliza Jane married her cousin, Reubin Arcutus, Mary m. b. in 1823, Susan, Thomas, b. 1832, Malvina, Almira, Charles William, Lavinia, (Aunt Puss) b. 1842 and some say, a daughter Katherine.

Malvina, Almira and Livinia were three "old maids" who lived with their brother Thomas in the family home after the death of their parents. Thomas was in the Civil War serving with Gen. John Hunt Morgan. There is a family story that he and his friend were crossing a river on horseback with the Yankees in pursuit when the friend's horse was shot. The man was unable to swim. Thomas Hawkins grabbed him by the hair and pulled him to safety. "Thomas came home from the Civil War riding a stolen horse and playing a violin." He was never married and is buried in the family grave yard. The property belongs to a family named Temple now.

Benjamin was a prosperous farmer before the Civil War and owned many slaves. Each of his children had his own personal servant. His home was large and comfortable. The children were provided with a good education including music lessons. There was a large square grand piano in the house that was a delight to the great grandchildren who liked to visit there.

Malvina and Almira became senile in their old age and one wandered away and died. The other drowned in a pond on the property.

Lavinia, a cantankarous, selfish, old lady spent her last years visiting among her relatives. There is a family story that she was very demanding and called her great nieces and nephews "Niggah". One day she threw her laundry at Mary Martha, her great niece, and Bessie, her great nephew's wife and said "Heah, Niggah, wash my clothes." Mary Martha ("Mattie") and Bessie did her laundry for her including the starching and ironing. "Her drawers were starched so stiff that they stood up."

Aunt Puss spent her days tatting and when one finger became infected, she had to have her hand amputated. Lavinia died in the "Poor House" in Frankfort.

Charles, the younger son of Benjamin and Elizabeth served in the Civil War with Morgan's Raiders. He married Martha Ann Easley, daughter of Woodson Gale Easley and Martha Ann West Foster. Their wedding was on May 31, 1864 in Franklin CO., KY and they lived on land adjoining his father's property in Thorn Hill. Charles William was a musician and played the fiddle at dances and social gatherings in Frankfort. He and Martha had four children: John, b. in 1865, Mary Louise, b. ca 1867, "Little Weel" and Elizabeth, known as "Betsy". Little Weel (William) and Mary Louise died in early childhood. Charles d. on Oct. 29, 1913 and Martha in 19 .

Betsy married Fred Craig and had twin daughters, Laura and Lou. One had dark hair and eyes and the other was blond with blue eyes. Betsy decided that she didn't want but one daughter and gave Laura to her mother to raise. Because she had dark hair, Aunt Puss always called her "Niggah." Fred Craig and Betsy had a son Albert whom she raised.

Betsy seemed to have inherited Aunt Puss's personality and while she probably didn't call people "Niggah", it is said that she was so mean that she "growled in her highchair." She and Fred moved back into her mother's home after Martha became a widow. They lived next to her brother John's farm where his widow Kate was struggling to raise her large family. Betsy didn't like Kate, so she shot her chickens and poisoned Kate's cow and calf.

Betsy died of cancer in the 1930's and is buried in the Hawkins Family Cemetery just outside of the stone wall surrounding the older members' graves. Long suffering Fred Craig, a very soft spoken man and his son, Albert died of cancer within a short time of each other, in the early 1950's. Their graves are next to Betsy's and are the last of the family to be buried there.

John William Hawkins, the older son of Charles and Martha was born in Frankfort on March 17, 1865. He married Mary Catherine ("Kate") Peffer in The Good Shepherd Catholic Church in Frankfort. Mary Catherine was born in Thorn Hill on Jan. 1, 1870, the dau. of Conrad Peffer and Mildred McDonald.

John and Kate lived on a farm adjoining his father's farm in Thorn Hill and also owned a house in Thorn Hill Heights where the family lived part of the time. John was a farmer, worked at a distillery and sometimes played the violin with his father at social functions and dances.

Stephen B. Hawkins was another brother. He was b. ca 1847. There was a sister Sarah, b. ca 1842. Ann Bryant Hawkins died just 5 days after her son Walter. She also had typhoid fever.

What happened to Mary Hawkins, Watson, Mankspile? She was the sister of William Hawkins, Sr. Elisha, Arculous, Reuben and John. A Hawkins family tradition says that "two sons (descendants) of Sir John Hawkins came to America in 17???. and settled in Orange, CO. VA. Their names were William and John. William lived to be 115 years of age. He died in 1789 on Dec. 31. He had sons, William, Reuben, Arculous, Elisha, John and a daughter Mary Fisher." Was Fisher Mary's middle name or did she marry a man named Fisher for her third husband?

We have discovered the "William who lived to be 115" to be two William Hawkins in Orange CO., VA. There appeared on the scene in Orange County another William Hawkins, a colorful character who seems to appear and disappear without any family named Hawkins claiming him. This is his story:

"Borrowed from THE HISTORY OF ORANGE COUNTY VIRGINIA by Scott pg. 28

A number of the justices were desired to view the Rapidan above and below Germanna for a convenient place to keep a ferry, and to wait on Col. Spotswood to know on what terms he would let such a place. Later he agreed that he would let his land for a ferry there for 630 pounds of tobacco, with sufficient land for two hands to work, but debarred the keeping of tippling houses and hogs running at large, and public notice was ordered of the letting of the ferry and plantation at a subsequent term, and that advertisements be set up at the churches."

Mrs. Miller of the Orange County Historical Society provided a copy of the original letter written by Colonel Spottswood complaining of William Hawkins who was the above mentioned ferryman who had been selected to live at his plantation. This is the letter:

Germanna Aug. 17, 1736

I desire you to move the Court about the Ferry at Germanna ----- Condition upon which William Hawkins was allowed to be Ferry-keeper there:
which was that he could keep no Ordinary or Tippling House so near my dwelling; to the end my people might not be drawn away from their Business--- that Condition is now so audaciously violated to openly bring thither great quantities of rum and sugar, --to make my house at the Ferry, in spite of all I can say. -----a place of continual Report, for my servants----- with other loose of Profligate perjury in so much that during a month past I have not got done ten days of work by----or shoemaker nor a weeks work by my -----.

Then after this rude treatment of me before my door, I went down to the Ferry and called over to him for me, if the fellow was more sober and found him in no less insult: a position of mind. and when I ordered him to remove with his family and goods from off my land--- he refused to comply; and when I required him to--- with me (I had sent ----- messenger to him before for the same purpose.) he very rudely stated that he would -----Fountain with his acc----- provided that I came with a ----- or if I had one; then he should then have another.

The Governor took action and Hawkins was fined. Showing his compassion, the Governor paid his fine.

From Orange County, Virginia Deed Books 3 and 4 , abstracted and compiled by John Frederick Dorman, we find our friend, William again in trouble.

" Owen Grinnan VS. William Hocking Grinnon complains that the defendant in Orange County on March 6, 1732/3 made his promissory note to him for 1000 pounds of tobacco and on May 4, 1733 for 500 pounds of tobacco. He was obliged to lay out ----pounds of tobacco in prosecuting the defendant in Prince William County where the defendant removed and lived. He asks damages of 25000 pounds of tobacco.

Z. Lewis for the defendant says the plaintiff included in the note six pounds for the forbearance and usury of 150 pounds and 850 pounds for one year, against the form of the Act of Assembly and also says the defendant has apid the plaintiff 500 pounds of tobacco." Mar. 6, 1732/33.

"Promissory note of William Hocking to Owen Grinnan for 500 pounds of tobacco , 24, May 1733. Wit. John Willcocks, Ann (X) Hawkins."

"Summons to William Hocking, 20 May 1735 returned 10 June 1735 by Wm.

Z, Lewis and J. Mercer render an opinion, 13, July, 1736 that there is due Owen Grinnan 15000 pounds of tobacco. The question was submitted to their award in February.

Court ordered an attachment, 16, Sept. 1736. I have found one Rasp of the value of ten pounds of Tobbb. of the estate of the within named Wm .
 Hawkines Estate which is all I can find at present of His Estate. Benjamin

"Order for taking Hockings in Custody.

Bond of William Hawkins of Orange County, Blacksmith, Thomas Stanton
 George Wheetly and James Pollard of same, Gent., Our Soveringhn Lord the King, for 180 £ sterling.

18 Aug. 1736. On the motion of Alexander Spotswood, Esq. , it is ordered that the Sheriff remove William Hockings from the ferry plantation belonging to Alexander Spotswood and that Spotswood take charge of the ferry and keep it according to law."

We do not know who this William Hawkins was for certain but we do know that he was a blacksmith. John Hawkins of Essex County left his son William "smith's tools, after he was of age." Pg. 34 Essex CO. Virginia by Dorman. Alexander Spottswood Esq. vs. WM Hawkins

"Account of William Hawkins the Hon. Alexander Spottswood, Esq., dated Germanna 28 Aug. 1736, for saw files, scissors, sugar, cotton, bacon, pepper, salt, shoemaker's thread, men's shoes, linen, paper, rum ect. and sundry medicines per Dr. Gibbs' account. Total 3.17.10 £ between Jan. 1734/35 and 9 Nov. 1735. Received Oct. 1735 from Thomas Rutherford, 5 shillings; due 3.12.10 £. Dated at Germanna 28 Aug. 1736. (this is included in the preceding account)

Promissory note of Wm Hocking to Colo. Alexander Spotswood, dated Germanna 25, Oct. 1736. for 1.2.0£ current money.

Summons to Wm Hocking, 20 Aug. 1736 executed 1 Sept. 1736 by G. Marr, Deputy Sheriff. Judgement for 1.2.0 £."

Another William Hawkins b. Feb. 16, 1725 lived in Essex CO. VA in the parish of St. Ann. He left a neatly written will in 1769, in which he names his wife, Margaret, his daughters Sabrinah Boutwell, Elizabeth Moseley and Margaret Hawkins. His sons were : John, Thomas, Liven, Birkenhead and William. They were all left many slaves. His sons remained in Essex Co. and copies of their wills are available at the Virginia State Library in Richmond, VA. This William Hawkins was the son of John Hawkins, son of Thomas, an early settler of Virginia.

From Daughters Of The American Revolution we find records of a William Hawkins who was born in England and came to Fauquier CO., VA. At the age of 30, he enlisted at the Chesterfield Courthouse on Sept. 1, 1780. He was a butcher by trade and had brown hair, black eyes, and a dark complexion. After the war, he went to Harrison CO. David H? Hawkins b. Oct. 4, 1796 married Elizabeth S. Driver ca 1818. Elizabeth Driver was b. Feb. 14, 1804 in North Carolina. She was a descendant of the Sumner family, a very influential family of North Carolina in the 1700's. Elizabeth died on Apr. 15, 1885 in Weakley CO. TN and is buried at the Mt. Vernon Cemetery there. Her husband, David Hawkins died ca 1840.

A descendant of this family contributed this interesting information :

"Elizabeth Sumner Driver Hawkins' father, Moses Driver died in 1815 in Lincoln CO. TN, and her mother Sarah Sumner Driver , died in Marshall CO. TN in 1853. This probably accounts for the fact that Elizabeth S. Driver Hawkins, her 7 children and slaves left Marshall CO., TN by horse drawn wagons for Weakley CO., TN, a distance of about 135 miles, or at least 6 days travel. I was told that one night when they stopped for overnight in a farmer's barn yard one of the women peeked through a crack in the door of one of the farmer's outbuildings and saw 3 skeletons hanging by the necks with ropes. This frightened them all and caused the men to harness up the teams and all to keep traveling all night down the wagon road. This story was told to me by a great granddaughter , Lura Ward Stancil, in her 80th year, who had lived in Weakley CO. TN all her life."

"Martha Elizabeth Hawkins and Samuel Benjamin Sanders were my great grand parents and I feel certain that the Hawkins and Sanders families were well acquainted before my Hawkins moved to Weakley CO., TN, for my great grandfather, Samuel B. Sanders, is said to have ridden a big black horse from Marshall CO. TN to Weakley CO. TN with the purpose of getting married to Rebecca Ann Hawkins. However, after arriving he changed his mind on the girls and married Martha Elizabeth Hawkins on Mar. 18, 1858. This couple later moved to the mountains north of Ozark, Franklin CO. Ark. on the advice of their doctor for the wife's health. I don't know what health problems she had."

David Hawkins and Elizabeth Driver had children: Sally Ann b. Nov. 20, 1819, Polly D. Hawkins, b. Apr. 1, 1821, Rebecca Ann , b. Apr 1, 1824 in Tennessee. She never married and died on Nov. 11, 1912. She is buried in the Mt. Vernon Cemetery in Weakley, TN. Her sister, Lena Caroline Hawkins was b. Aug. 27, 1826. She never married and died on Dec. 27, 1910. She is buried in the Mt. Vernon Cemetery in Weakley, TN. Moses Henry Hawkins b, Nov 1, 1827 ma. Julia Amanda Surber in Lincoln CO. TN on Dec. 27, 1855. He died on Apr. 10, 1877 and is buried in the Mt. Vernon Cemetery. Martha Elizabeth Hawkins was b. Sept . 20, 1832 and married Samuel Benjamin Sanders in Weakley CO., TN on Mar. 18, 1858. She died on Mar. 16, 1906 and is buried in Mt. View Cemetery in Franklin, Arkansas. William Duke Hawkins, b. Dec. 29, 1833 was never married and was a Civil War Vet. He died on Mar. 28, 1903 and is buried at the Mt. Vernon Cemetery. Jacob John Pinkney Hawkins was b. Dec. 20, 1836 and James Driver Hawkins was b. Dec. 17, 1839. He died on Mar. 27, 1862 and is buried in the Mt. Vernon Cemetery in Weakley, TN.

Mr. Gervis Floyd is retired after many years in the Navy where he served on destroyers. He later retired from the Army Signal Corps after 13 years in Alaska.

Martha Rebecca Amanda Clement Floyd was the daughter of Simeon Erasmus Clement and Elizabeth Ann Caroline Sanders (Clement). Martha Rebecca was b. Mar. 6, 1881 in Weakley CO. TN and married Nolen Floyd on Oct 2, 1901 in Franklin CO. Ark. She died on Mar. 19, 1964 and is buried at Rose Hills Cemetery at Whittier CA, She was a great granddaughter of David Hawkins and Elizabeth Driver Hawkins. She was the mother of Gervis Floyd.

Mr. J.W. Singer of Stamping Ground, KY has written a book on his Hawkins ancestors. They were: Giles Hawkins, Sr. b. March 15, 1755, Maryland, died March 1841, Jessamine CO. KY. He was a veteran of the American Revolution and had three sons: John, Thomas and George.

Thomas Hawkins married Annie Wilmore and had seven children: James, Giles, John, Jacob, Thomas, Jane and Kittie.

Giles Hawkins, Jr. b. 1810, d. 1873 married Martha Jesse and they had nine children: Martha, Mary, Elizabeth, James, William, Lucretia, Sudie, Jesse Nolan, Clara, Jeanetta, Sudie.

James William b. 1845 d. 1921, married Alice Jesse. They had six children Pearl, Ernest, Robert, Linnie, Louis, Bowmar. Linnie was Mr. Singer's mother.

From a part of a letter with no signature to a Mrs. Walker in Frankfort, KY we find "John Dier Hawkins is the same as John Dyer Hawkins. Mrs. Allie Hawkins Elmore had two Bibles with worlds of information in them" continues the letter. "She wrote me once that in it the name is John Dier Hawkins and all the years she had thought it was Jehu Dier Hawkins".

From another unknown source, this bit of information: Allie Hawkins Elmore was the granddaughter of Jehu. He lived with them in his old age. She was the daughter of William Wall Hawkins and Azuba Scandlund.

Jehu Dier Hawkins, son of William Hawkins Sr. and his first wife Mary--- married Mrs. Mary Gaines on Oct. 28, 1780. He was b. on Aug. 15, 1756 in Culpeper, CO., VA. Their children, born in Orange CO. were: Elizabeth, b. Aug. 24, 1780, Mary Hawkins, b. Nov. 6, 1784, Jehu b. Dec. 27, 1785 and married Betsy O'Bannon in 1808 and Mary George Grundy. They had children: Henry George, who married Nancy James in 1811 in Barren CO. KY, Sally G. mar. her cousin Smith Hawkins, s. of Red Head Billy in Barren CO., KY and Mary who mar. S.S. Graham. Elizabeth mar. Thomas Parker in Virginia.

William Wall Hawkins son of Jehu and Mary Gaines mar. Azubah Scandlund in Frankfort, KY. They moved to Woodford CO. and bought William Wood's place on The Frankfort- Versailles Road. Azuba Scandlund's father was Edmund Scandlund who mar. Anna Hawkins.

When Rebecca Edwards Hawkins was applying for a pension in her old age, Jehu was living in Woodford CO. and signed a statement that verified the fact that Rebecca was the wife of Reuben Hawkins. He was present at their wedding.

Another family that claims to be descendants of the Hawkins Family of Plymouth, England is the John Hawkins Family of Hanover CO. VA. Most of the information on this John Hawkins was taken from a copy of an old letter written by D. J. Russell of Franklin County, KY. This is his story: John Hawkins was born in England and came to Virginia in 1742. He married Mary Langford, dau. of Col. Langford of the Royal Navy. John and Mary had children: Thomas, b. 1745. Martin b. 1747 and mar. 1. Elizabeth Thompson and 2. Margaret McNair. James b. in 1750 mar. Lucy---. John b. 1752 mar. Mary Garland Duke. Edmund b. 1754 mar. Mary Mosely. Lucy b. 1757, Jane b. 1760 mar. Capt. John Todd who was killed by Indians in 1782. Later, she mar. Thomas Irvine. Mildred b. 1763 mar. Percival Butler and lived in Carroll CO., KY.

Martin and Margaret Mc Nair had Christianna and Sallie. Dr. J. Russell

Hawkins writes " In the month of May 1820, he with his daughter Christianna visited my father, who lived in the County of Spotsylvania, VA and after spending some time, two or three weeks, he with his daughter visited an old and intimate friend of his youth, Daniel Burton who lived three miles west of Richmond, VA. After being there about two or three weeks he was taken with a severe attack of Pneumonia and on the 10th day of July died and was interred in the family graveyard by his request."

"John Hawkins' son who mar. Mary Garland Duke, dau. of Cosby Duke of Louisa CO. VA had only two sons. They were Walker who settled in Fayette CO., KY, six miles east of Lexington. He died leaving a large family. John Cosby Hawkins lived and died in his father's old residence, leaving a wife but no children. ---- mar. a Presbyterian Minister who lived in Fayette CO., KY."

Joseph Langford Hawkins was the father of Dr. James Russell. He made a will in Spotsylvania CO. and mentioned his wife Nancy Jane but not the names of his 14 children.

Mrs. Hattie Morton King, a descendant of John Hawkins of Hanover stated that he was descended in the 3rd or 4th generation from William Hawkins, the father of Sir John Hawkins the British Navigator. The slave trading genes must have been inherited too for John Hawkins of Hanover CO. was well known as a slave trader. He was often referred to as "The Slave Trader."

John's sister came to America and married William Quisenberry. They had one child, Elijah. He mar. --- and had James, Charles, Jane, Lucy and Mariana. John's other sister, mar. Elijah Morton in 1745.

A lady who has been searching the Hawkins Family Tree for many years, feels that John Hawkins of Hanover CO. is the son of Joseph Hawkins. This Joseph Hawkins was the son of John Hawkins and Mary Long. He was living in Hanover County at the time and she has discovered many things about the two families to have led her to this conclusion.

A will of John Hawkins, Jan. 16, 1715 of Hanover Parish, Richmond CO., VA which was part of old King George CO VA lists wife Elizabeth. Freeman was John Little, Jr. He mentions son, William, son John, son Benjamin and son James. Richard Butler and James Butler to take care of six children. Wm. to go to Henry Wood to be taught a trade. Richard Butler to take care of Sarah and Elizabeth. John to live with Butler until age 20. James Butler to care for Benj. and James until they are 20. Wit: Isaac Arnold, Rebecca Butler and John Little.

Another Joseph Hawkins in early Virginia was in Frederick CO. ca 1712 and married Sarah Marlin, dau. of Richard Marlin. His father was John Hawkins b. in 1660 in England and came to Essex CO. VA in 1705. His will mentions wife Sarah and children: Sarah b. 1746, mar. General John Sevier, a hero of the American Revolution and a Governor of Tennessee. Rebecca married Lt. Col. Richard Todd and after his death she married James Pugh. Joseph mar. Rebecca ---- and Lydia, widow of Reuben Allen. Benjamin mar. Magdalena Byrd, Samuel mar. Catherine----, Mary mar. Daniel Wendle and a daughter Elizabeth. Another daughter Rachel who married Peter Wingle was not mentioned in her father's will.

Joseph II b. ca 1754 was the son of Joseph and Sarah. He mar. Rebecca Funk and they had a son Samuel Walton in 1784 at Hawkinstown, VA.

Samuel mar. Anna Allen and had a son Samuel W. b. in 1822 in Shenandoah CO. He died on Jan. 17, 1892. Samuel W. II mar. Eliza Slonaker who was the daughter of George Slonaker. She was Samuel's 2nd wife. They moved to Ohio and then to Illinois after the Civil War. All their children went to Illinois except Anna, who was a dau. of Samuel W. and his 1st wife, Elizabeth Meyers. Other children of Samuel and Elizabeth were: John E., James G. and Lemuel. Eliza Slonaker and Samuel had Issac N. Rhesa O., Samuel T. and William B. Samuel W. II 's son William B. was b. on Dec. 20, 1866 in Highland CO., OH and died in Taylorsville, IL on July 26, 1945. William B. Married 1st, Rebecca Johnson, b. Oct. 1, 1872 in Christian CO. IL. They had a son Walter A. b. Jan. 25, 1891 in Christian CO. IL and d. Dec. 13, 1979 in Springfield IL. Walter mar. Ona Hazel Shover, b. Aug. 15, 1892 in Indianapolis, Indiana and died Jan. 1976 in Pava, IL. Walter A. Hawkins and Ona Hazel Shover Hawkins had a dau. Wanita Arlone Hawkins, b. June 8, 1918 at Taylorsville, IL. She mar. Monroe Lucas on Sept. 11, 1939.

Wanita and Monroe Lucas had three children. Sandra K. mar. Derrell White. They had sons Stephen A. and Benjamin L White. Sandra died in 1981. Vivian, dau. of Wanita and Monroe Lucas mar. Ronald Heedbreder and they have one child, Angela Heedbreder. Jeffrey A. son of Wanita and Monroe has no children.

Wanita Hawkins Lucas has a brother William E. (Bill) who never married.

The information on Samuel W. Hawkins and his family is from Mrs. Lucas. The information on Joseph Hawkins is from a book on the Sevier Family.

There was a family named Hawkins who came from Virginia to Green CO. Ohio around 1812 who may have some connection with Benjamin Hawkins and Magdelene Bryd. The following information was given by Mrs. Martha Volsted of Wisconsin.

Philip Hawkins was born in Virginia on Feb. 14, 1801 and died Sept. 24, 1863. His family immigrated to Ohio in 1812 to Green County. He had brothers Reuben, Samuel, Moses and two sisters. Philip married Elizabeth Martin, dau. of Samuel and Elizabeth Martin on May 18, 1826. They moved to Indiana in the fall of 1847. There were seven sons: Ephriam, William, Martin, Samuel, Thomas Jefferson, Frank and Moses who died in infancy. The two daughters were Mary Ann and Rebecca.

Ephriam mar. Mary Bates and had children named Dora and Elza. Samuel mar. Teressa Hatfield and they had children: Clinton A, who married Lora Hawkins the widow of Otto, Ella b. Cleo, Rolland A. Ollie E., Ora A., Sarah E., Estella and Reason E.

Ollie Hawkins was convicted of murdering Richard Hass through jealousy and was defended by Senator D.W. Voorhees. He received a seven year sentence, but was pardoned.

Theodore Hawkins the son of William Hawkins who married Rachel Allen on Dec. 4, 1881 died on Oct. 4, 1910. Their daughter was Myrtle Zuma who mar. William Curless. She was born on Jan. 30, 1885.

In the HISTORY OF THE Crockett FAMILY pg. 379, we find a Joseph, Benjamin and Samuel Hawkins coming to Virginia from England settling in Gloucester CO. and Matthew CO. which at that time were in Maryland. They are now counties in the State of Virginia. John, their brother came to America and settled in Massachusetts. Another Brother Phesa came to Virginia but died shortly after his arrival.

Samuel had three sons. One was Joseph, b. ca 1812. Samuel was married to Anneke Jane Edwards a Quakeress who had a brother Capt. Robert Edwards of the British Army. It is not known for certain if Anneke Jane Edwards is related to the family of Uriah Edwards of Spotsylvania CO. VA.

Joseph Hawkins and Anneke Jane Edwards had ten children: Benjamin, Joseph Jr. Richard, Samuel, Jane, Sarah, Rebecca b. ca 1756, Susan, Mary and Caroline. The family moved to Washington CO., N.C. soon after they were married.

Benjamin, their son married ca 1778 Magdalena Byrd, the dau of Mounce Byrd. Benjamin and Magdelene had children Mounce and Sarah who was b. on Jan. 17, 1780.

Mounce Hawkins and Mary Allen his wife had a son named Reuben who was b. ca 1810. He is said to be a cousin of Davey Crockett and lived in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia before moving to Xenia Township, Green CO., OH. In 1814 he and his father in law, who was with them purchased 1,000 acres for $5,000. They remained in Ohio.

Reuben, son of Mounce and Mary Allen died ca 1870 in Xenia Township, OH. His wife was Lydia Fallin of Clinton CO., OH. They had six children: Frank who was b. Dec. 12, 1841, Joseph G., Mary, Hannah L., Sarah E., and James P.

Reuben was a member of the Methodist Church; was first a Democrat, then a Republican. He was a school director before they moved to Wabash Indiana and went into the lumber business in Attica Indiana. Later they moved to Dawagiac Mich. He died at the age of 84. His son Joseph was killed in the Civil War at the age of 20. Mary E. mar. Preston Michael and d. in Mar. 1901. Her children were Jessie and Harry. Hannal L. daughter of Reuben and Lydia Fallis died at the age of 15. Sarah was 23 when she died and James died in infancy. The information on Reuben and his family comes from Mrs. Dorothy Wulfeck's reply to a query in her column in Queries From Genealogy and History Magazine.

Benjamin Hawkins and Magdalena's dau. Sarah was b. on Jan. 17, 1780 in Rockingham, VA. She married Michael Martz.

Samuel Hawkins son of Anneke Jane Edwards and Joseph Hawkins was b. ca 1762. He married ca 1783, Christina Worthington, b. ca 1762. Samuel died ca 1814 at Easton, Preble CO., OH. She died ca 1813 there. Their children were: Joseph, Benjamin, Byrd, John Jay, Samuel, Lydia, Sarah, Rebecca, and Eleanor. Samuel was an apprentice blacksmith under Thomas Brown. He served in the Virginia State Line as a private in the Infantry in the battles of Yorktown and Valley Forge.

John Jay, son of Samuel and Christina Worthington were married and had children: Samuel, Nathan Byrd, Benjamin W., Christina, Joseph C. and Elizabeth Caroline. John Jay was in the War of 1812.

Sarah Jane Hawkins, dau. of Anneke Jane Edwards and Joseph Hawkins was b. ca June 3, 1746. at Frederick, VA whi is now Shenandoah CO., VA. She married John Sevier, a hero in the American Revolution and Governor of TN. She was killed during an Indian attack in Washington County, TN in Feb, 1780. She was first buried in a secret grave and later moved to the Court House Grounds in Knoxville, TN. Her children were : Joseph, James, John, Elizabeth, Sarah, Mary Ann, Valentine, Richard, and Rebecca. It is said that she was small and blond. When Sevier was defending the fort in Frederick CO., he used most of his bullets. Sarah spent the day in front of a fireplace melting lead and molding bullets so that they could protect themselves that evening.

At one time Joseph Hawkins and Anneke had a large trading post in a stockade in Frederick CO.

Rebecca Hawkins, dau. Of Anneke Jane Edwards and Joseph Hawkins was b. ca 1756 in either Baltimore, MD or near York, PA. She died in Washington CO. TN ca 1834. She married John Crockett b. ca 1754. Their children were George, Samuel, William, James, John, Wilson, David b. Aug. 17, 1785 "on a mountain top in Tennessee" near Limestone, Washington CO. Joseph, Betsy, Jane and Sally were other children. John Crockett served in the Battle of King's Mountain in 1780 where John Sevier became famous for his heroic efforts.

The Sevier Family written by a descendant claims some of the same names. Joseph Hawkins b. ca 1712, he claims married Sarah Marlin, dau. of Richard Marlin. He claims that Joseph is the son of John Hawkins, b. 1680 In Essex CO. VA in St. Anne's Parish and d. prior to Oct. 7, 1740. He named Joseph and Sarah's children as Sarah who m. Lt. Col. Richard Campbell, Benjamin who mar. Magdalena Byrd, the dau. of Mounce Byrd. Samuel mar. Catherine---, "Mary m. Daniel Windle and Gen. John Sevier's Diary states that he frequently stayed at her home on his way to Washington, DC. There was another daughter, Elizabeth who never married."

Another source of information is that Davey Crockett's mother, Rebecca Hawkins, was from a line that comes from a Thomas Hawkins. The Hawkins family in Tennessee who signed the Watauga Treaty in the 1770's were Nicholas, Nathan, Aaron. Davey himself is said to have written that his mother was born in Pennsylvania.

Early records of York County VA show Thomas Hawkins coming to Virginia on the ship James in 1619 where he settled on the New Poquoson River. He was an original Grantee in the Jamestown area who was elected to the House of Burgesses and the militia where he served as a Captain. Mr. Reginald Smith states in his book on the Hawkins Families that he was the son of William Hawkins of Plymouth, England who had three other sons who came to Virginia. William's son, William married 1... and 2. Mary Halse. They had daughters and their sons were: Richard, Nicholas b. ca 1582, Francis, b. 1584 and William. William died and Mary came to America with her children. Thomas was the son of William's first wife. William married Sarah and came to Virginia first. Sarah and her children William and Sarah came to Virginia with Thomas Lucas. Thomas was William's half brother and was married to Mary Lucas who was the daughter of Thomas Lucas.

Thomas Hawkins had 340 acres on the North side of the Rapahhannock River. He was responsible for bringing seven persons to the New World and was awarded the property. He brought his wife over twice and his son Thomas Jr. Capt. Henry Fleet had property adjoining his on the S. side of the "Potomeck" River. Herringe Creek was mentioned in the description and the award was for bringing 20 persons to Virginia.

Thomas Hawkins Jr. and Elizabeth received 300 acres upon New Poquoson River "nearly into the woods" N.E. upon the creek parting this and Mr. John Cheesman's land. It was due for transporting four persons.

The Virginia Historical Magazine, Vol. III tells that Capt. Thomas Hawkins was a vestryman of Sittingbourne Parish, Rappahannock CO. in 1665 and that he was a justice. He died in 1677 and left wife Frances and sons Thomas and John. His daughter Elizabeth received his first wife's diamond ring and pearl necklace and "if she died" they were to go to his daughter Hannah. Deeds in Essex CO, show that Thomas had a wife Mary.

Thomas son Thomas of Essex CO. was involved in Bacon's Rebellion and he died without marrying. He was a Major in the Militia and he and Captain Thomas, his father fought Indian battles. Maj. Thomas was taken prisoner by Nathaniel Bacon. Virginia Magazine, Vol. III, pgs 36-37.

Hannah, Captain Thomas Hawkins' daughter married Col. William Moseley of Essex CO... Historical Southern Families Vol. 4 pg. 146 by John Boddie.

County lines and names often changed in this period of time as the land became more populated.

From Lunenburg. CO., VA Records BK 4 Pg. 23 we are introduced to Joshua Hawkins. Sept. 1, 1756

"whereas it has been reported that I, Joshua Hawkins, some time ago did publically declare that I had seen John Hobson bugger a marc. These therefore may satisfy all whom it may concern that I never divulged such a report nor do I know or ever heard of the Hobsons being guilty of such a detestable abomination. Amen. Signed his mark. X Joshua Hawkins"

Joshua Hawkins was b. ca 1721. His will written May 16, 1801 shows that he had moved with his family to Greenville County SC. (sic)

"In the name of God amen. I Joshua Hawkins of Greenville district of SC of sound mind and perfect memory do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament. Viz;

I premise I give and bequeath my sole to almighty God that first gave it to me and my body to be decently buried at the descretion of my executors herein mentioned.

Item, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Sarah Cook Hawkins my hole estate real and personal during her natural life.

Item, My will and desire is that at the death of my beloved wife that the whole of my movable estate be equally divided between my youngest son Pinckney and my grandson Isham Smith Hawkins.

Item, I give and bequeath to my son Pinckney Hawkins at the death of my beloved wife all my lands containing 200 acres.

Item, Lastly I constitute and appoint my son Pinckney Hawkins and my son Eaton Hawkins executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking and disannuling all former wills heretofore by me made and in witness whereof I have set my hand and seal this 16 May 1801. Witnesses Thomas Edwards and Mary Ann Edwards.

Mr. Reginald Smith has written a book on his Hawkins ancestors. He says in his book that Joshua was the son of William Hawkins and Martha-- who was from Pennsylvania. In a letter he said that William was b. in King William Co., VA and moved to Lunenburg, CO. His children were: Joshua, Pinkethman, John, Herbert or Harbert, Ann, Drury, Joseph who mar. Jenny and Josiah. Ann was the wife of Herbert.

Children not mentioned in Joshua's will were Joshua Jr., Peter, Herbert and Josiah.

Joshua Jr. served in the American Revolution and received a pension of $8.00 per month. He was wounded in the war. His wife was "Sukey" Johnson and the records in the Latter Day Saints Library say that they were married on 29 Mar. 1872. He is listed as the son of Michael and Agnis Hawkins. Another record in Lunenburg CO., VA shows that he was mar. to Sarah Sandy on Sept. 26, 1830. It appears that we are looking at three generations of men in the family named Joshua. From the same film, we find George Washington Hawkins b. Oct. 14, 1856. He was the son of Joshua Pleasant and Mary Hawkins. George Washington was b. in Greenville, S.C. where Mr. Smith said that they moved.

Other members of a Hawkins family in the Greenville, SC area mentioned in the Mormon films are Martha or Polly who was the dau. of Eaton and Catherine. She was b. in 1782 and in 1799, she mar. John Ragland. Pinckney was b. July 12, 1848 in Greenville. Isaac mar. Martha Kenworth in Union, CO., SC on Oct. 21, 1804 and he was also named in Greenville along with brother William E. Hawkins on their father, Eaton's will on Feb. 14, 1812.

Logan Hawkins and his wife Mary Jane had a son Alonzo Robert Hawkins b. 17 Aug. 1889.

Perhaps from the same family in Greenville, SC is Solomon Hawkins who had a son, John Robert Hawkins. From the Greenville News: Aug. 16, 1937: "J.R. Hawkins

Greer, Aug. 15, Funeral service for John Robert Hawkins, 75 retired farmer of this community, who was instantly killed Saturday morning when he was struck by a Piedmont and Northern Railway freight train near his home will be held at 11 o'clock Monday morning at the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church of which he was a member, and will be conducted by the Rev. J.N. Watson, assisted by Rev. E.G. Harrison. The internment will be in the Church Cemetery.

The pallbearers will be Carl and Clyde Hawkins, Marvin and Albert Pearson, Homer Russell and Arthur Brown. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Bessie Long Hawkins, one son Boyde Hawkins and one daughter Mrs. Henry Pearson. Pending the hour of the service the body will remain at the Wood Mortuary."

There were Hawkins families in early North Carolina and it was Philomon Hawkins' widow who moved her family there. Philomon Hawkins was born in England in 1690. He married Anne Eleanor Howard there and emigrated in 1619 to Charles River CO., VA. Two patents were granted to him in 1619 and two in 1625 for land near Todds Bridge which is now in King and Queen CO., VA. At the time that he lived there Todds Bridge was in King William County. The bridge spanned the Mataponi River near where his relative possibly a brother, John Hawkins lived. Philomon died at the age of 35, leaving his widow and sons Philomon and John and a daughter Anne. In 1735, Anne Eleanor moved with her children to North Carolina.

Philomon Hawkins II, b. 1717 in VA, d. 1801 in Butte CO. (Now called Warren CO.) NC. He was the son of Philomon, the Immigrant and Anne Eleanor Howard. He married Delia Martin in 1743 and they had six children. Their sons were: Col. John Hawkins, Col. Philomon Jr., Col. Benjamin b. 1754 and Col. Joseph. Their daughters were: Delia who mar. L. Bullock and Ann who mar. Micaja Thomas. Both girls died young with no living children. Col. John mar. Mary - and four of their five sons served for many years in the North Carolina legislature. John's daughter Mary mar. Aug. 12, 1760 in Granville, NC. Nathaniel Bullock son of Richard Bullock and Anne Henley. Mary died in Oglethorpe, GA in 1833.

Col. Philomon Hawkins Jr. son of Philomon and Delia built Pleasant Hill, near Middleburg, N.C. and with his father he fought at Alamance but both became patriots and both fought in the American Revolution on the side of the Americans. His son William was the Governor of North Carolina in 1814 and Speaker of the House in 1810 and 1811.

Col. Philomon Jr. was a member of Provincial Congress and in 1789 the Convention that ratified the Federal Constitution. His Dau. Mary, mar. John Downey.

Col. Benjamin was a senator from Warner CO. N.C. and served in the War of Independence. He was b. Aug. 15, 1754 and d. June 6, 1818.

Maryland had its Philomon Hawkins too. Philomon Lloyd Hawkins came with Edward Lloyd to Charles City CO., MD in 1650 from Wales. He had a brother Henry living in St. Marks CO., MD who d. in 1673 leaving a will in which he mentioned his nephew Edward son of Philomon Lloyd, who was executor.

There was a Ralph Hawkins in Charles CO. in 1650 who died in Anne Arundel CO., in 1675. He was the ancestor of Capt. John Hawkins, 3rd Regiment, (VA) Continental Line. No connection has been established with Ralph and Philomon. The fact that he came to this country from Wales does not necessarily mean that he was a native of that place. It indicates the place where his ship left for the New World.

Philomon Hawkins, Gent. son of John Hawkins and Mary Long of King WM, CO., VA was born in the early part of the 18 th Century. The Virginia Colonial Militia by Crozier show that he was a soldier in a Regiment commanded by Col. William Byrd in the French Colonial War. He was a Capt. of a company of Foot, taking his oath Feb. 5, 1750 in Spotsylvania Co. and was commissioned a Captain on July 21, 1755. Later, he became a Col. as did his son John.

Philomon owned various properties in Caroline, Spotsylvania, King William and Orange Counties. Some of his property was inherited from his father and a part was purchased from his sister Mary Craig.

This Philomon Hawkins was the ancestor of Gen. John Hawkins who wrote a book Gen. JOHN P. HAWKINS REMINISCENCES written in the 19th Century.

Gen. Hawkins claims that John Hawkins of Hanover CO., VA who mar. Mary Langsford is related to him. His cousins, descendants of John of Hanover used to visit his home when they were children. They were children of Littlebury Hawkins who was in Texas at the time. His sister brought Littlebury's sons Antoine Domineuil and Ross Hawkins home with her.

Gen. Hawkins tells a story on pg. 74 of his book: "Capt. John Hawkins had a son, Martin, concerning whom the following adventure is related: That he was fishing in the James River and having caught a large sturgeon and having him near shore, he jumped into the water and thrust his hands into his gills to land him, but the fish closed his gills on his hands and made for the deep water, where for some time there was a lively struggle for the mastery. Finally Martin landed the fish on the opposite shore. I have heard this story all my life as the wonderful performance of a relative. It is known among all of the Hawkins name having relationship to him."

Gen. Hawkins also speaks of the relationship between Sir John Hawkins and John Hawkins of Hanover CO. He quotes from a part of Sir John's will this:

"To my servant, Roger Langford, an annuity of twenty pounds during such term as he shall be employed in going through my accounts with Her Majesty, which accounts I willed to follow by the direction of my wife and of my son, Richard Hawkins" In another part of the will he leaves his cousin, Sir Francis Drake, "whom he had educated" : "My Best jewel, which is a cross of emeralds."

Dr. James Russell Hawkins who gave information on his Hawkins ancestors, including Martin the fisherman his uncle was a native of Spotsylvania, CO., VA. He was b. Jan. 30, 1805 to Maj. Joseph L. Hawkins and Ann P. Robinson Hawkins. In Kentucky A History Of The State by Perrin, Battle and Kniffen we find that his grandfather John Hawkins of Hanover CO who married Mary Langford, died of smallpox while serving as a major in the Revolutionary War.

Dr. J. Russell was reared on a farm in Virginia where his father was prosperous and hired private teachers for him. He married Sarah A. Boles of Henrico CO. and they had eight children: Joseph, Betsey Ann, Mary Eliza, J. Russell Jr. Julia L., Mildred J., William B. and Hamilton Pope. His wife died in 1878.

The family moved to Kentucky in 1838 and settled in Franklin, CO. after practicing medicine in Boone CO. for eleven years. He was also active in politics and was secretary of the State Senate in 1851 and served for 25 years in that position. He was one of the three commissioners who selected Hopkinsville as the site for the Western Lunatic Asylum in 1848. He received his education to become a physician at Transylvania College.

Another James Hawkins who lived in the same area in Kentucky is listed in Perrin, Battle and Kniffen's book as James S., the son of Senat A. and Mary Dodd Hawkins. He was born in Woodford, CO., KY on Feb. 19, 1810. He was a merchant, farmer, justice of the peace and constable.

During the Civil War he served under Gen. Morgan in Company E. Second KY Cavalry and was wounded in the shoulder at Cynthiana in 1863 and in the side and right hand at the Battle of Bull's Gap. After he surrendered with Gen. Taylor in Mississippi he opened a store, raised stock and was a farmer. He married Dolly Reed. They were Presbyterians.

The usual pattern of migration from the east to west is reversed in the case of the following family: Ambrose Lee Hawkins was b. on Oct. 18, 1841 in Gainsborough, Jackson County, Tennessee. He married Mildred Frances Faulkner in Blacksburg, Montgomery County, VA on Nov. 15, 1870. His parents were William K. Hawkins b. in 1798 in North Carolina and Elizabeth --- of NC in 1802. Mildred's parents were Fielding Jones and Sarah Jane Smith. She was b. Feb. 27, 1847 in Montgomery CO., VA.

and Elizabeth Ellis. Agnes Brooks Carr was her mother and William Ellis was her father. John Coons was the son of Jacob Coons (Kuntze) and Elizabeth Handback.

James M. Edwards, the father of Elizabeth Edwards, was the son of Joseph Edwards b. ca 1780-85 in Virginia and Malinda Mc Ilhaney b. ca 1791 in S.C. Joseph Edwards is thought to be the son of Thomas Edwards and Grizelda Barnes. Malinda McIlhaney was the dau. of ----McIlhaney who. mar. May 12, 1792 1793, Grizella Graham who may have been his second wife.

A Hawkins couple who deserves recognition is William Hawkins and his wife, Mary who lived in Stephens CO., Texas. It is said that they have had nineteen children of their own and raised some of their grandchildren.

In the Stephens CO., TX 1880 census William is shown to have been b. in Tennessee and was 64 years of age. Mary was b. in Alabama. Their children at home at the time were Peter Thomas, 16, and Lewis McK. 10. Both were born in Texas. Also living with them were grandchildren, Delita Jane, 14, James 12, and Sarah C. 10.

Mary Ann Hawkins (b. Aug. 29, 1841 d. Dec. 21, 1872) was the dau. of William and Mary. She mar. John W. Berry b. Mar. 4, 1828 and d. July 6, 1873. Their children were: William Henry b. James S. Hawkins was b. Sept. 30, 1840 in Woodford CO., KY was the son of Senate A. Hawkins and Mary Dodd. His grandfather James was b. in Virginia. James S. served under General John Hunt Morgan in CO. E. Second Kentucky Cavalry and was wounded in the shoulder at Cynthiana in 1863. He was wounded in the side and right hand at Bull's Gap. He surrendered with Gen. Taylor in Mississippi on Apr. 15, 1865. He returned to Woodford County and opened a general store and raised cattle. His wife was Dolly Reed of Jessamine CO. He was a Presbyterian. Information from Biographical Sketches in Kentucky A History Of The State by Perrin, Battle and Kniffin.

John Hawkins b. 1750-60 mar. ca 1770 to Elizabeth-----. Their children were: Delila, John, Elender, Joseph, Milly, Elizabeth, Nancy, all born in Kentucky. In 1790 he was in Nelson, CO. KY and in 1791 a daughter was born. In 1815, he deeded one and one third acre of his property for a Baptist Church meeting house and burial ground. It is now called Lincoln Memorial Cemetery on Fort Knox near Mill Creek. In 1820, he was in Harden CO. and died 1830-31.

Mrs. Willie Shearer wrote a family history on her Hawkins line in 1976. A copy was made for me at the Spotsylvania Historical Society in July, 1983. She wrote: "The foregoing family history was given to Mr. Mays or Judge Edward Mays by a--- in a letter bearing the date of Oct. 30, 1893, she being then 72 years old, and having gathered the same from family letters and family conversations." All attempts at contacting Mrs. Shearer were in vain and the identity of "she" remains a mystery.

The "foregoing" information given to Mr. Mays is this: "John Hawkins left his wife, Mary (Waller) Hawkins the following children: 1. John Hawkins, 2. Hardress (Hardy) Hawkins, 3. Elizabeth Hawkins, married John Dick, who died in a year, leaving a daughter Mary Hawkins Dick, who subsequently became the mother of Mrs. Mary Hawkins Jackson of Nashville, TN. Elizabeth Hawkins Dick married Thomas Crowder and left several children, one of whom married a Mr. Nash. 4. Mary Hawkins, born Sept. 9, 1771, married Emsley Parke on Oct. 16, 1794. Children: 1. Pleasant S. Park, 2. Alfred W. Parke, 3. Frances Eliza Park. 5. Frances M. Hawkins married a Mr. Duggar. Children: 1. Elizabeth Duggar, married a Dr. Williams. 2. Caroline Duggar, married a Dr. Battle. Dr. Williams and Dr. Battle were from LaGrange, GA."

Who was this John Hawkins? The Tennessee D.A.R. State Records show that Captain John Hawkins born February 14, 1733, died on Dec. 19, 1786. He was married to Mary Waller and was in the 5th Maryland Battallion 1771-1781. Ref. Heitman's Official Register Pg. 214.

Mrs. Shearer uses Marriages of North and South Carolina by Clemmons, Pg. 120 as her reference for the following: "John Hawkins, oldest son of John and Mary Waller Hawkins went to Rowan County, North Carolina. John married Mary (Polly) Goodman, daughter of John Goodman, on December 27, 1796 in Rowan CO."

The Randolph CO. Deed Book 13, Pg. 354 shows John was married to Elizabeth Varner, dau. of Jacob Varner. Elizabeth Varner of Randolph CO., NC married Benjamin, son of John and Polly Goodman in April, 1831. It is not clear if this is his sister-in-law or another Elizabeth Varner.

Orange CO. NC Deed Bk. 8, Pg. 360 shows that John and Hardress Hawkins, brothers and heirs of John Hawkins came to an agreement on the division of land owned by their deceased father, John. "John agrees to: One tract whereon my father lived, adjoining John Lin, George Fogleman, and the Orange CO., line, 640 acres and one other tract adjoining Robert Fields, Jeremiah Fields, 641 acres," and was witnessed by J. Scott and Isaac Holt. Pro. May, 1800.

Mrs. Shearer shows that a John Hawkins was a Sheriff and Hardrip Hawkins was a Deputy Sheriff in Orange CO., NC. In Sept. 1786, he had a license to keep a tavern or "Ordinary" at his dwelling home. In 1787, she shows that John Hawkins drowned accidentally in the Haw River.

Benjamin Hawkins, son of John Hawkins and Polly Goodman was b. June 3, 1803 in Randolph CO., NC. He purchased 250 acres from his father, John in 1825. His wife was Elizabeth Kindley whom he mar. on Feb. 28, 1825 in Randolph CO. They had children: John b. Nov. 25, 18--. He mar. Louisa Smith in Smith CO., MS. Martha (Patsy) was b. May 1, 1827 in Randolph CO. and mar. Anguish Gunn in 1848 in Smith CO., MS. Pleasant C. Hawkins was b. June 9, 1829 and mar. Polly Westbrook.

After Elizabeth Kindley's death in January 1830, Benjamin mar. Elizabeth Varner on Apr. 3, 1831. Their children were: William b. Sept. 16, 1832 in Randolph CO., NC. William mar. Mary Quinn on Jan. 24, 1855 in Smith CO., MS. Anderson b. in Randolph CO. mar. Martha E. McQuinn, Sept. 20, 1855 in Smith CO. Jesse Dobson b. 1838 in Randolph CO. mar. Catherine Johnson on Apr. 16, 1867. Charles (Brim) b. 1840, Mary Ann b. Dec. 12, 1842 mar. Moses Lingle on Aug. 2, 1861. Nancy b. 1844, probably in MS, Thomas b. 1847 mar. Lucy Shirley of Smith CO., MS. Before moving to Mississippi, Benjamin was a member of the Assembly (House of Representatives) from Randolph in 1833/34. He owned over 1,100 acres in Randolph County. He is said to be a descendant of Sir John Hawkins.

Another interesting fact that Mrs. Shearer discovered is that Elizabeth Kindly Hawkins was a descendant of John and Ursula Briles who came from Germany in 1717 to Germanna, VA. Germanna was located on the Rapidan River in Orange, CO., VA. This was the location where Gov. Spotswood established his community of German workers. Remains of living area and place of worship is still there. The location is on the Orange County side of the Rapidan River to the left of the bridge to Culpeper CO. on Hiway 3. from Fredericksburg. The pictures below on this page were taken there. It is still a woodsy and beautiful place. Flat Run is near this area. William Hawkins of Orange CO. left property on Flat Run to his sons, Reuben and Elisha in 1799.

Henry Hawkins of Shenandoah County Virginia has a great, great, great, granddaughter, Katherine Ann Hawkins who wrote the following information:

"Henry Hawkins was b. in 1765 in England. He originally came to this country with a man named Pennywit around 1799 to do some fur trapping and trading with the permission of France in what is now the states of Oklahoma and Arkansas. They returned to England in 1802. Henry and his family returned to this country in 1808 and settled in the above mentioned county.

Phillip Hawkins was b. in 1798 in England and mar. Elizabeth Pennywit. He died in 1870 in Van Buren, Arkansas. Phillip returned the family to Arkansas. His wife and her brother Charles were cousins to the man who had come to this country with Phillip's father. Charles and Phillip built the first paddlewheeler type boat for that area. When the Indians I know as the Five Civilized Tribes were moved from the south east in the late 1820s and into the 1830s to Oklahoma, Phillip was in on the last leg of the move. He also saw Lincoln sworn in as president. At the time of the American Civil War also known as the War Between the States, he owned a 2,000,000. dollar farm. At the end of the war he owed nothing on it. At that time he also owned slaves.

Harry Wallace Hawkins was b. July 12, 1855 in VanBuren Arkansas. He mar. Josephine Lemley on April 15, 1884. He died on Jan. 12, 1903 and is buried in the Family Cemetery in Oak Grove Arkansas. Harry and Josephine had 3 children: Roy, James E. and Henryetta. Like his father he had many irons in the fire. Besides being a farmer he also owned a saw mill and a cotton gin. While operating the cotton gin he got caught in the line and was badly injured. He had many broken ribs as well as his left knee being crushed. He had several operations on it of which took place in St. Louis, MO. But the medical profession wasn't as good then as it is now. Great grandmother Jo remarried in 1910 to a Myron Richard West and they had one daughter Thelma Marie who was b. in March, 1913.

Roy Hawkins was b. June 28, 1889 in Van Buren Arkansas. He mar. Lucille Sangster on Dec. 15, 1906. He died May 26, 1924 in Van Buren, Ark. and is buried in the Gill Cemetery in Van Buren.

State of Kentucky Franklin County

Personally appeared before me Henry Wingate a Justice of the peace for said County, Jehudiah Hawkins, aged from appearance Seventy-five or six years, who being by me solemally charged and sworn in due form of law to testify the truth touching the Revolutionary Services of Elisha Hawkins, Senr. deposeth & says that he was 76 years of age on the 25th day of August last past- That he is well acquainted with the Said Elisha Hawkins Senr. now a resident of Franklin County, Kentucky, and that he knew him in Orange County in the state of Virginia in the year 1776 when he enlisted as a regular Soldier under Capt. Francis Taylor and marched under him to Williamsburg, Virginia where a number of troops lay all that summer, and on the next winter they were sumoned to the north and the said Elisha Hawkins Senr. returned home in April 1778 having remained in the service under said enlistment two years.

This deponant further states that he always understood and so believes the fact to be that the said Elisha Hawkins Senr. Served several tours of Militia duty in the war of the Revolution, but knows nothing of said Services of his own knowledge.

Jehudiah X Hawkins

State of Kentucky Franklin County

on the 20th day of August 1832, personally appeared in open Court before the Franklin County Court now setting Elisha Hawkins a resident of Franklin Co. and state aforesaid aged 77 years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832.

I enlisted in Orange county Virginia under Capt. Francis Taylor, 1st Lieutenant William Taylor, 2nd Lieutenant Benjamin Porter, Ensign Francis Coward. I enlisted on the 2nd day of March 1776 according to the best of my recollection and served two years under the same officers and was then discharged at Valley Forge. I belonged to the second Virginia Continental Regiment. I had at one time a regular discharge but, now have nothing to show the same having been lost, nor have I any documentary evidence to show the fact of my service. And I know of but one person now living by whom I can prove my service a Mr. Jchu Hawkins I was once on a furlough to my relation being sick & permitted to return home & he went back to the army with me on private business. I never was in any regular engagement but in several skermishes. I have been living in Kentucky about thirty six year and the last thirty in the County of Franklin. I hereby relinquish every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declare that my name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State.

Sworn to: Elisha Hawkins

We William Hickman Jr & John Brown Ministers of the Gospel belonging to the Baptist denomination of the County of Franklin in the State aforesaid do certify, that we are well acquainted with Elisha Hawkins who has Subsribed & Sworn to the above declaration, that we believe him to be Seventy Seven years of age, that he is reputed & believed in the neighborhood where he resides to have been a Soldier of the revolution & that we concur to that opinion.

State of Kentucky , Franklin Co.

On the 21st day of December 1838 personally appeared before John McKee esqr. a justice of the peace for the county and state aforesaid Rebecca Hawkins a resident of the said county and state aged seventy six years, who being first- duly sworn according to law; doth on her oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions made by Act of Congress passed July 4, 1836. That she is the widow of Reuben Hawkins deceased who was a soldier in the war of the revolution and as such enlisted for a term of two years in the County of Orange and state of Virginia. Under Capt. Francis Taylor and in the regiment of Colonel John Spotswood. She cannot state precisely at what time her husband enlisted, but she knows it was on the same day that Elisha Hawkins did enlist and for the same term, and that they belonged to the same company and regiment. Said Elisha was a pensioner of the United States till his death, which took place in November 1822, and resided in Franklin County and drew his pension at the agency in Lexington, Kentucky; by reference to whose declaration the day of her deceased husband's enlistment will accurately appear. She knows that her husband was a an officer during his revolutionary service, and that while he belonged to the army, he did occasionally engage in the County of Orange and the surrounding counties as a recruiting officer , dressed in his regimentals; and that twice, if not oftener, he took his recruits up to the army and again returned upon that business. She stated that her husband was either an Ensign or Lieutenant for the whole time of his service, or at least from a day or two after his enlistment till he left the American Army. She states that her said husband served faithfully from the time of his enlistment until sometime in the winter after his marriage, but what time precisely she cannot now recall. She further states that her said husband was in the County of Orange engaged as a recruiting officer at the time he courted her, and that they were married by Parson Mary of the Church of England in August seventeen hundred and seventy eight, but on what day of the month she cannot now certainly recollect. She states that her said husband Reuben Hawkins died in the month of August 1812 that she has no family record of her marriage, and knows of no record witness of the said marriage anywhere. She further states that she well recollecth that in the fall after her said marriage with the said Reuben Hawkins deceased, that he took his recruits to the army. That she went with him upon that occasion, as far as Fredericksburg, Virginia and that during the remaining Winter he resigned and came home to Orange County where they resided. She does not know what has become of her said husband's discharge. She thinks it was lost by him during his life. She has remained a widow ever since the death of her said husband, as will now fully appear by reference to the proof herto annexed.

Sworn to and subscribed on the day and year above written.

Rebecca Hawkins her X mark

The deposition of Jehu Hawkins aged eighty two years taken at the house of William Hawkins in the County of Woodford on the 29th day of October 1838, who being first duly sworn, upon oath states, that he recollecth distinctly that Reuben Hawkins, deceased, whose widow, Rebecca Hawkins, now resides in Franklin Co, Ky, enlisted in the war of the revolution for two years, in the company of Capt. Francis Taylor of Orange County, VA. He does not now recollecth at what time said Hawkins enlisted but he knows that it was at the early stage of the revolutionary war, and he is certain that it was in the first company of regulars that was raised in Orange County, but he does not know whither he was in the continental service, or the service of the state of Virginia. According to the best of deponent's recollection said Reuben Hawkins was a sergeant from the commencement of his service; but he knows that some short time after he left Orange County with his company, that he returned to said county, dressed in regimentals, as a recruiting officer but whether he held the office of Lieutenant or Ensign when he returned to Orange, deponent cannot now recollect. Though he is certain it was one or the other. He knows that said Hawkins was engaged as a recruiting officer, in the counties of Orange, Culpeper, Louisa and other counties in that part of Virginia for some time and he recollecth that he took his first recruits on to the army, and again returned, and was engaged for sometime in enlisting soldiers, and whilst thus engaged in collecting these sworn parcels for recruits, he courted his wife, the said Rebecca Hawkins, and was married to in the County of Spotsylvania, Virginia, at the house of the Parson, near old Mr. Edwards, her father's. Deponent was present and witnessed their marriage, and knows it was during the war of the revolution, but at what time he cannot now recollect. He knows however that said Reuben Hawkins, deceased, was married in his regimentals, and whilst he was engaged as an officer in the recruiting service of the county; but how long after his marriage it was before said R. Hawkins left the army he cannot recollect. He recollecth that Elisha Hawkins, deceased the brother of Reuben, enlisted at the same time and in the same company with Reuben, for two years that he served out his term, and was a pensioner of the government till his death, which took place four or five years ago, and he is strongly impressed with the belief, that when Elisha left the army and returned home, that Reuben was still in the army holding the commission of Ensign or Lieutenant. He does not know whither Reuben continued all the time he was in the army in the company of Capt. Taylor, or not; for after he first left home in the service (when deponent saw him during his service) he was in Orange and the surrounding counties, engaged as a recruiting officer enlisting men, and taking them on to the army. His recollection is now too frail to speak positively as to time or dates, but he thinks he is not mistaken in saying that said Reuben Hawkins was engaged more than twelve months as a recruiting officer as aforesaid.
